

St. Michael School donated old sports uniforms to www.teamatesfourlife.org, run by former Stonington High School student and player Vivianna McGugan. This nonprofit organization is focused on helping underprivileged girls in Uganda Africa. The girls there are in need of gym shorts and t-shirts as they currently practice in old shirts and skirts with holes. They were so excited to receive such a wonderful donation from our school!